

TTT 387. Sermon Review Part 3 - Evaluating a Sermon. What Worked Well in the Sermon.

Teaching Tip 387 | “Sermon Review Part 3 - Evaluating a Sermon. What Worked Well in the Sermon.” | Malcolm Cox

This is part three of the series helping us to learn how to learn from other preachers. We've had a look at the sermon by a friend of mine called Bruce so that we can do the following:

1. We will be able to imitate his good practices.
2. We will learn how to review a sermon to spot what is done well

In part one, I introduced the sermon and what we were trying to achieve and how. If you've not watched that one, please pause this and view that first. In part three this week, I will be sharing some of my own observations and responding to any that you have sent in.

Hebrews 12.1-3

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart.”

- Vulnerability
- Passion
- Jesus-centred
- Clear central point
- 30 minutes - perfect length
- Enough context but not too much
- Good thought-provoking questions
- Not a church staff person

- Relevant additional scriptures
- Sub-points fitted with the main point
- Preached with confidence
- Maggie's prayer

Conclusion

Next time we investigate 'How to Host Live Interviews'.
